PROSPECTIVE STUDENTS' INFORMATION

2018/2019 ACADEMIC YEAR

1.0 DATE OF ARRIVAL

New students should report for Orientation week on Monday 24th September, 2018 for Arusha Main Campus. Classes begin on Monday 1st October, 2018, at the Dar Es Salaam Campus.

2.0 MEDICAL EXAMINATION

2.1 Admission to the Institute is conditional upon presentation of a Medical Report affirming your fitness for studies. You are therefore required to undergo Medical Examination by a registered Medical Practitioner before coming to the Institute. For this purpose please use the attached IAA MEDICAL EXAMINATION FORM.

NB: Medical examination form will/shall be submitted during the orientation week, please do not post the form.

- 2.2 Students are responsible for their medical examination fee.
- 2.3 Students' Sponsors are responsible for their medical expenses in case of ill-health and its related consequences for the whole period they will be pursuing studies at the Institute.
- 2.4 Any students who do not belong to any Health Insurance are supposed to come with Tsh 50,400/= for NHIF. No student will be registered without showing his/her insurance ID. This will cover the medical services for a period of one academic year, while at the Institute as well as anywhere within Tanzania.

3.0 MODE OF FEES PAYMENT

Fees must be paid in advance before any registration is done. Payment for tuition fees may be made in three installments with 40% in the first installment, second installment 20% and the remaining 40% in the third installment. No student will be registered in any semester without paying the required amount of fees. No fee refunds will be affected until a sponsor /loan offer has paid in full, in any year of study. You are to make payments through either of the following bank accounts:

S/N	ACCOUNT NAME	ACCOUNT NUMBER	BANK NAME	BRANCH
1	IAA CRDB Main Account	01J1035916500	CRDB BANK	CRDB, MERU BRANCH ARUSHA
2	INSTITUTE OF ACCOUNTANCY ARUSHA- NBC	014139000031	NBC	NBC ARUSHA
3	INSTITUTE OF	40810080084	NMB BANK	CLOCK TOWER

ACCOUNTANCY ARUSHA- NMB
----------------------------	--	--	--

NB: Payments can be made to the Institute's bank from any bank in your district or region, never travel with fees in cash.

4.0 TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS

4.1 You are notified to arrange with your sponsor for your traveling expenses to cover three return trips per academic year.

4.2 Off – Campus Transport

Transport remains the responsibility of a student. Students are advised to budget for an amount of between TShs 100,000/= and 200,000/= for public transport for the 240 days in the academic year.

4.3 On arrival in Arusha/DSM you may reach the Institute by taxi or public transport (popularly known as “daladala”). Current rate for hiring a taxi from town centre to the Institute is on the average TShs. 10,000/= and the public transport charges may be TShs. 400/= per trip. The rates charged by taxis during the night are comparatively higher. Please make an effort to arrive during the day on Monday for convenience purposes. Students will be attended from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm. Students arriving late should look for their own night accommodation in town and arrive at the Institute in the morning the following day.

5.0 IMMIGRATION FORMALITIES

Foreign students are advised to apply for and obtain Residence Permits from the Director of Immigration Services, P.O. Box 512, Dar es Salaam, Tanzania. Residence Permit Application Forms may be obtained from the Director of Immigration Services on request. Do not report at the Institute before obtaining the relevant permits. The Institute will not attend any cases associated with the breaching of immigration laws and regulations. Foreign students' medical expenses and related consequences will be borne by themselves or their sponsors.

6.0 ACCOMMODATION

Students will be required to find their own accommodation during their studies at the Institute. However, IAA Main Campus will only provide limited shared accommodation for first year female students in need. Likewise, we have only 34 vacancies for Masters Program (12 vacancies for female and 22 for male students). Payment for hostel shall be made to IAA's Account. Upon arrival at the Institute the accommodation will be provided on the basis of First Come Served. Once arriving at the Institute, a student will get a shared room, after accepting it she/he will then be required to go to the Bank and pay for accommodation fee. Never pay for accommodation before arriving at the Institute and get assurance of room. Cooking in hostel is strictly forbidden.

NB: Don't come with cash; use ATM, M-PESA, TIGO PESA or AIRTEL MONEY

Private Hostels:

The Institute notifies students of a number of privately owned residential houses within walking distance off- campus that first year (Certificate, Diploma, Bachelor and Postgraduate) students may arrange with owners to secure accommodation before arriving at IAA- Main Campus. However, they should not pay for before seeing it and satisfy themselves. During long vacations i.e. two weeks and above, all students must vacate Institute- provided on campus accommodation.

The following is a list of Privately Owned Hostel facilities Off –Campus for first year (Degree and Postgraduate male/female students for personal arrangement).

Only soft drinks are allowed on the campus provided rooms. Alcohol and related products are strictly prohibited in residences; any offender will forfeit being provided hostel services, and will be evicted from Hostel rooms.

9.0 ALLOWANCES

It is the responsibility of the student to agree with his/her sponsor on any allowances or other payments that he/she will be paid while studying at the Institute.

10.0 PHOTOCOPYING SERVICES

Commercial photocopy services are available at the Institute to assist students to copy reading materials from the Library or handouts from lecturers.

11.0 STUDENTS' ORGANIZATION

There is an Institute of Accountancy Arusha Students' Organization (IAASO) to which all students are members by admission. Further information about this may be obtained from the office of IAASO.

12.0 REGISTRATION

12.1 Orientation

All candidates must attend the orientation week which commences on Monday, September 24th, 2018.

12.2 Late Comers

Registration will continue for only two weeks from the start of the orientation week. If you must be late for any reasons beyond your control, but are truly interested to join the Institute, please call the Admissions Officer or send a relevant message using the indicated e-mail address below.

13. EXAMINATION REGULATIONS AND STUDENTS' BY-LAWS

A student must familiarize himself/herself with the Institute's Examination Regulations and Students' By-Laws upon admission. Successful pursuit of any program by a student admitted to this Institute is to a great extent dependent on the student's understanding of and adherence to the regulations and guidelines stipulated in these two documents which can be found in our library or on the Institute's Website.

Any student who violates the laws, regulations, and guidelines of the Institute shall be disciplined accordingly.
